

DATE/PLACE PREACHED: Sunday, September 14, 2008 AM

TEXT: Philippians 1:12-20

TITLE: Productive in the Gospel Mission

PROPOSITION: The Believer is to Joyfully Magnify Christ through Great Commission Productivity.

INTRODUCTION:

I. CHRIST IS MAGNIFIED BY THE GREATER PROGRESS OF THE GOSPEL, v. 13-14.

A. The Advancement of the Gospel is the Overriding Goal For the Believer, v. 12-13.

1. The gospel must move forward in spite of personal inconveniences, v. 12-13.

2. The Gospel must be furthered in spite of persecution, v.13.

B. The Advancement of the Gospel Through Difficulty Encourages Others to Aid the Progress of the Gospel, v. 14.

II. CHRIST IS MAGNIFIED BY THE CONTIUNED PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL, v. 15-20.

A. The Proclamation of Christ Should not be For Personal Benefit, v. 15-17.

B. Joy Comes Through The Accurate Proclamation of the Gospel, v. 18-20.

1. The gospel must be proclaimed through public preaching.

2. The gospel must be proclaimed by personal witness.

C. The Gospel is Proclaimed to Make Christ Known to the World.